

Scholarship for studying abroad

French Government - Copernic Scholarship

2016/2017

General information on this scholarship

Institution: French Government

Name: Copernic Scholarship

Website: <http://institutfrancais.pl/scien...>

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The French government launched a special scholarship program BGF Copernic for fresh university graduates from central and eastern Europe. The scholarship is aimed especiall at individuals who completed their degree course in economy, law, and other technical and engineering faculties. The scholarship lasts for 6 to 12 months including six months of internship at one of the partner companies. The total monthly grant amount is set at 760 Euro.

CONDITIONS REQUIRED FOR APPLICATIONS

- have an engineering degree, economist or lawyer representing 5 years of higher education.
- have, if possible, a few years of professional experience.
- never having received a scholarship from the French government.

Applicants must be 30 years old or younger. They must be fluent in French and/or English.

APPLICATION

Candidates must remove from the Cultural Service of the Embassy of France in their country a Copernicus application form in duplicate.

The file must be completely filled in two copies and accompanied by:

- copies of detailed records of the grades obtained in the last two years in a university, and copies of their exact certified translation
- copies of degrees obtained
- 2 letters of recommendation (written in French or English)
- Curriculum Vitae in French

A folder is to be sent to the following address :

Monsieur MAHRER, Administrateur Général du Programme Copernic
215, boulevard Saint-Germain 75 007 Paris France

The other application must be delivered to the Cultural Department of the Embassy of France in Turkey:

Prof. Doc. HDR. Maria BONNAFOUS - BOUCHER
Conseiller adjoint de coopération et d'action culturelle
Konrad Adenauer Caddesi n°30
Sancak Mah. Yıldız / Ankara
maria.bonnafous-boucher@diplomatie.gouv.fr

And

Madame Béatrice Delpouve
Attachée de Coopération Universitaire
Fransız Kultur Merkezi
İstiklal Caddesi no: 4 İstanbul/ Taksim
beatrice.delpouve@ifturquie.org

Application deadlines

1 March 2016.