Research follows 3 axes:

- Corporate social responsibility and sustainable development
- Tourism management
- Business management

Strengths

- Separate admission system for international students taking into account their geographic distance from the school.
- Housing assistance for international students (housing in student buildings or with host families).
- On-campus center for French as a foreign language; courses in French offered before and during the academic year.
- Year-long availability to international students of a multilingual member of the staff for assistance with administrative and regulatory formalities (visa and residency permit, housing assistance, health insurance).
- The international students office (a student association) provides guidance and support: mentoring, tour of the town, cultural excursions.

Location

With a population of 75,000, La Rochelle lies on France's Atlantic coast between the cities of Nantes and Bordeaux. It is 3 hours from Paris by train. La Rochelle welcomes more than 3 million visitors each year, making it France's third-most-visited city.
