

COPERNIC Programme

Management training
for the contemporary business world

Contents

- Who are we ?
- Our objectives
- The Copernic students
- Positions held by Copernic graduates
- The academic programme
- References
- Contacts

Who are we ?

- Created in 1990
- Stimulated by 3 University-level institutes:
 - Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris
 - École Nationale Supérieure des Mines de Paris
 - Collège des Ingénieurs

Our objectives

- To offer additional management tools to young graduates who are already highly qualified.
- To enable them to bridge the cultural divide and successfully integrate the French business world by working in French companies.

COPERNIC

The COPERNIC students

- Coming from Central and Eastern Europe, CIS, Albania, Turkey, Egypt or Tunisia
- 30 years old (maximum)
- Minimum of 5 years tertiary education
- Graduate engineers, economists or legal experts
- Speak French
- Motivated to work in a French company

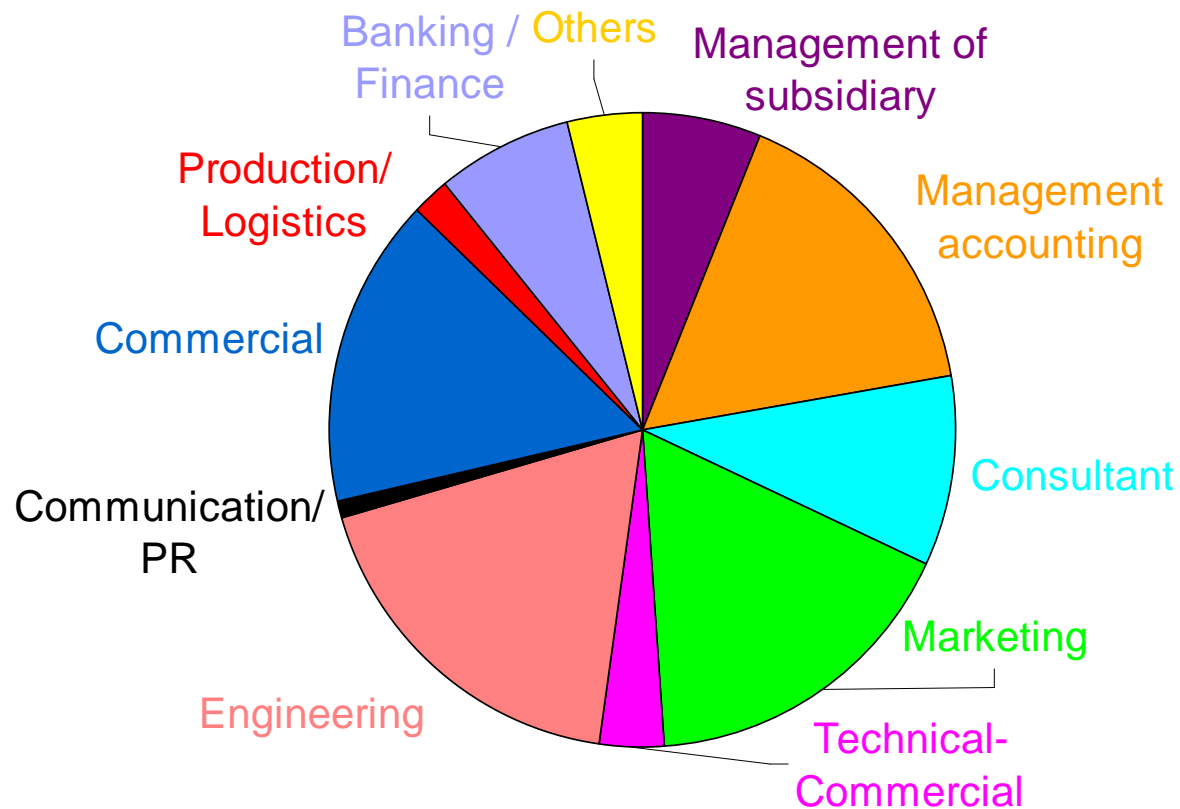

Origins of the COPERNIC students

Positions held by the COPERNIC graduates

The COPERNIC academic programme

- Economics
- Politics
- Company organisation
- Strategy
- Decision analysis
- Marketing
- Production management
- Project management
- Finance
- Accounting
- Social law
- Social engagements
- Financial mathematics
- Cross-cultural communication
- Jobs application
- English

440 hours
during 6
months

References in 2011

- Air Liquide
- Amadeus SAS
- Arcelor Mittal
- Groupe BNP Paribas (Klépierre Ségécé)
- Bouygues Construction
- Bureau Veritas
- Groupe Crédit Agricole
- GDF Suez
- L'Oréal
- Opteamis
- PSA Peugeot Citroën
- Renault

CONTACTS

215, boulevard Saint-Germain
75007 Paris - France

(33 – 1) 49 54 72 74

Fax

(33 – 1) 49 54 72 53

www.cdi.fr/copernic

copernic@cdi.fr